Property Description

Here we present a freshly renovated 4 room apartment which offers enough space even for a large family. In a fantastic location, only a few meters away from the famous beach "Meia Praia", it still provides short distances to all facilities that daily life requires. The marina, the historical centre of the city, supermarkets or the train station are all near and reachable by foot. The property has also a private garage parking space. The 4 bedrooms (one en-suite) are equipped with fitted wardrobes, the new kitchen comes fully equipped and the beautiful living room scores with a fireplace and stunning sea views. There are 3 balconies, the largest of which is shared by the living room and the suite. Comfort and quality are clearly visible throughout the house and will surely satisfy even the most demanding customer. Outside the building there are wide, beautifully planted flower beds which are well maintained by the condominium administration. The pleasant, quiet surroundings invite you to live in this place.
